GARNISHEE
DISCHARGEDJudge De Bolt Decides
Insurance Money
Contest.

Judge De Bolt yesterday rendered the following decision in the case of Kaneohe Ranch Co., Ltd., plaintiff, vs. L.
Ahlo, defendant, and the Royal Insurance Co., garnishee. It is an action for $8856 for rent and taxes on Nuuanu street premises:

"I wish to say in this matter that I have given it all the care and attention I could along with the other business of the court. I have not gone into it as thoroughly as I might otherwise have wished, but I am bound to say that as far as I have gone the authorities all seem to be one way. It seems to me that the authorities are very clear that a power of attorney or instrument such as is on file in this case must be construed according to the purpose thereby to be accomplished and in accordance with the intention of the parties. The power of attorney of Grimbaum & Co. is, beyond question, coupled with an interest. And, considering the documents on file, together with the evidence of Mr. Gartenberg, Mr. Walker and Mr. Withington, it is clear that the parties intended an assignment. I cannot bring my mind to any other conclusion.

"I therefore hold that the claims against Mr. Ahlo, held by Grimbaum & Co. and Mr. W. R. Castle, trustee, were duly and regularly assigned, in good faith and for a valuable consideration, prior to the service of the garnishment papers upon the Royal Insurance Co., the garnishee herein, and that being so there is nothing else to do but simply to discharge the garnishee, it appearing that the claims held by the assignees more than cover the amount in the garnishee's hands.

"Included in what is termed the Grinbaum claim are the claims of Phillips & Co., Hoffschlaeger & Co., Ltd., and von Hamm-Young Co., Ltd. These claims are covered by, and, of course, included in, the assignment.

"The garnishee, the Royal Insurance Co., is, accordingly, discharged."
The decision sustains the lien claimed by the Grimbaum claimants on insurance money owing by defendant under a judgment in favor of L. Ahlo.

ANOTHER JURY TRIAL.
So as to save the trial as of this term, a jury will be empaneled in the ejectment case of Kaloikoko vs. Wai-luku Sugar Co., transferred from the Second Circuit, before Judge Lindsay today. The term closes tomorrow, but, under the new law, if a jury is empaneled prior to the end of a term the trial may proceed to a conclusion regardless of the term limit.

JOHNSON AND KUMALAE.
Enoch Johnson and Jonah Kumalae's application for bail, pending their petition to the Supreme Court for a rehearing of their appeal from conviction, will be heard by Judge De Bolt at 9 o'clock tomorrow morning. Both

A SILLY SAYING.

"It is a common but silly opinion prevailing among a certain class of people that the worse a remedy tastes, smells or hurts, the more efficacious it is."
So says a well-known English physician. He further adds:
"For example, let us consider cod liver oil. As it is extracted from the fish this oil is so offensive to the taste and smell that many cannot use it at all, no matter how badly they need it.
Yet cod liver oil is one of the most valuable drugs in the world and it is the greatest pity that we have not thus far been able to free it from these peculiarities which so seriously interfere with its usefulness." This was written years ago; the work of civilizing and redeeming it has since been triumphantly accomplished; and as a leading ingredient in the remedy called WAMPOLE'S PREPARATION the oil retains all its wonderful curative properties with no bad smell or taste whatever. It is palatable as honey and contains all the nutritive and curative properties of Pure Cod Liver Oil, extracted by us from fresh cod livers, combined with the Compound Syrup of Hypophosphites and Extracts of Malt and Wild Cherry; creating a medicine of unequalled power for the diseases most prevalent and fatal among men, women and children. There is no other remedy to compare with it. It increases the digestive power of the stomach and in Blood Impurities, Throat and Lung Troubles, Nervous Dyspepsia and Scrofulous Affections, it gives quick and certain relief and cure. Dr.
G. C. Shannon, of Canada, says:
"I shall continue its use with I am sure, great advantage to my patients and satisfaction to myself." Has all the virtues of cod liver oil; none of its faults.
You may trust it fully; it cannot disappoint you. At all chemists.

men are serving their sentences in the meantime.

KAPEA'S CASE DEFERRED.

Henry Kapea's demurrer to indictment for embezzlement was continued for the term by Judge De Bolt. The defendant will therefore have to stay in jail about three months unless he can find $2500 bail.

COURT NOTES.

W. W. Chamberlain by Smith & Lewis has brought a suit for foreclosure of mortgage against John E. and Maria A. Bush, the debt being $5500.

W. R. Castle has filed a creditor's claim of $1357.50 as principal and $135.75 as interest, secured by mortgage, against the estate of Isaac H. Sherwood, deceased.

Gilbert J. Waller, Democrat, and James W. Girvin, Republican, are the First Circuit jury commissioners for the remainder of 1905.

Joinders in demurrers and a replication have been added to the file in Hemenway, trustee, vs. Honolulu Clay Co.

Marie Olsen has received letters of guardianship of the persons and property of her three minor children, Carlos, Edward and Louise.

Harry N. Denison has petitioned the Court of Land Registration for a title to house lot on corner of Wilder avenue and Makiki street, which, with improvements, is assessed at $4300.

Argument on points was partly heard in the Mail-Carter case by Judge Lindsay yesterday afternoon and will be resumed today.

CURTIS CO. TONIGHT
IN GREAT VAUDEVILLE

The M. B. Curtis aggregation of vaudeville stars give their opening performance at the Orpheum tonight, and, judging from last night's dress rehearsal, the audience have a rare treat in store for them.

Owing to the fact that the company had no intention of stopping here all the advance billing matter was sent ahead to Australia, consequently there were no posters, bills or other advertising matter necessary to boom the show.
Such small matter as has been put out was hastily improvised, and while it hardly answers the requirements, still the management feels assured that after the first performance the merit of the show will speak for itself.

The Princess Chiniquilla gives an act such as has never been seen in Honolulu.
It has created a furore throughout Europe and America, where she has been the star attraction in the leading vaudeville theatres.

Major Newell, the cowboy juggler, banjoist and pistol shot, is without a peer in his line and will give a performance that, to say the least, will create enthusiasm.

Reno the Great is a magician of rare power and performs his most difficult feats of legerdemain with an ease and grace that is truly refreshing, while his illusions, which are the very latest, will all the audience with wonder.

Barbour, the funny little man, is a monologist who keeps his hearers in a constant state of laughter. He is quaint and humorous and reminds you of the famous Marshall P. Wilder.

Miss Edith Challis, who presents the pictured melodies, has a voice of rare power and sweetness and will certainly please any audience, while the Count's Dilemma, produced by the biograph, is a roaring laugh producer of 15 minutes' duration.

The show on the whole is first class in every particular, and at the popular prices of the Orpheum should play to full houses during the engagement, which is limited to eight nights and two matinees.

NOMINAL
DAMAGESSam. Parker to Pay $250 for Libeling
S. M. Ballou.

"We the jury in the above entitled case find for the plaintiff and fix the damages at two hundred and fifty dollars ($250)."

Such was the verdict rendered by the jury in the libel suit of Sidney M.
Ballou, attorney, against Samuel Parker, capitalist, for $50,000 damages. The jury filed into Judge Lindsay's court at 9:30 last night with their verdict, after having been out nearly seven hours. Once they had come into court, a little before 4 o'clock, to have certain parts of the instructions read again to them.

"Your Honor," J. Alfred Magoon said a moment after the verdict was announced, "the defendant notes an exception to the verdict and gives notice of motion for a new trial, on the ground that the verdict is contrary to the law and the evidence and the weight of evidence."

"And that the damages are excessive," Judge W. A. Whiting, of counsel for the defendant, added and everybody, including the plaintiff, laughed.

A. G. M. Robertson, counsel for the plaintiff, took nearly three hours yesterday, besides an hour the day before, in his closing address to the jury. Concluding, he laid stress on the fact that the alleged libel was given permanence from its being part of the court records. Also he urged that the prominence of Col. Parker in the community made the libel especially damaging.

The gist of what the jury have found to be libel in the case consisted of charges made in an affidavit signed by Samuel Parker in the Annie T. K. Parker, minor, guardianship case, to the effect that Mr. Ballou had acted un-professionally in attacking Col. Parker in that case, as he had been his attorney in the Hamakua ditch matter, with which the minor's interests were to some extent bound up, and, further, that for such conduct Mr. Ballou was unfit to practice law in the courts of this Territory.

A vast mass of documentary and oral evidence was adduced at the trial, which began on June 5 and has continued throughout every court day since. The jury was empaneled on June 2 and consisted of C. H. Atherton, T. R. Mossman, J. A. Auld, K. B.
Porter, E. E. Hartman, A. Winter-stein, A. E. Murphy, R. Weedon, Manuel Leal, E. L. Doyle, W. J. Karattali and C. L. Sprinks.

The nominal damages awarded make it clear that the verdict was a compromise between one for the defendant and a mistrial through disagreement on Parker's responsibility for the offending affidavit prepared by his attorney.
